

No Till Field Day

Thursday, June 28, 2012

9:30 am—1:00 pm

Arden and Travis Willford farm

From Harmony, MN: 1.5 miles east of Harmony on Hwy 52, then 3 miles south on 341st Avenue

From Burr Oak, IA: 3 miles west on Co. Rd. A18; 2.5 miles north on Co. Rd. W20 to Stateline Rd.; 2 miles west on Stateline Rd. to 341st Ave.; 0.5 miles north on 341st Ave.

The program will include:

- Travis Willford, landowner
- Jim Fasching, Soil Consultant with Midwest Labs in Plainview, MN:
Soil amendments and soil sampling techniques for no till
- Nick Heronimus, Syngenta Seeds:
Seed varieties for no till
- Gary Thome, Economist and Instructor at Riverland College in Austin:
Economics of no till vs. conventional tillage
- Farmer panel talking about their own no till experience
- Soil infiltration demonstration
- Equipment will be on display

Lunch served by the Fillmore County Pork Producers

Sponsored by CPS-Harmony, F & M Community Bank of Preston,
Fillmore County Corn Growers, and J & S Repair of Grand Meadow

Participating agencies include Fillmore SWCD, USDA NRCS, U of M Extension